AFFILIATED PARTNERS' STUDY ABROAD EVENTS

Affiliated Partner

Affiliated programs are either third party providers or exchange programs who have partnered with Rhodes. When you go abroad with them, you are fully considered a Rhodes student while abroad. You continue to pay Rhodes like normal for whatever is included in the program (tuition/room/board), meaning all your financial aid will go with you. Your pre-approved courses will count towards your degree.

RHODES GLOBAL DELEGATE SPOTLIGHT

Name: Lexi Sullens c/o 2022

Majors: Education Studies and Spanish

Program: ISA Semester in Sevilla, Spain (Spring 2021)

"As an Educational Studies and Spanish major, I knew studying abroad would be an integral part of my college experience. Despite COVID-19, I was able to study in Sevilla, Spain to learn about education in a multicultural context. While I was there, I taught English as a foreign language through my program provider and La Universidad de Sevilla. This solidified my decision to be a world language teacher that values transformative, student-centered educational practices. My abroad experience also allowed me to grow personally. While I lived in the residencia with other students in my program, we cooked traditional Spanish dishes together, explored southern Spain, and built unique friendships. My favorite part about Sevilla was the diverse cultural and historical influences, seen through La Plaza de Espana, La Catedral, and La Universidad. I was so lucky to get to know Sevilla on such a deep level through study abroad."
